Short term memory and recall The ability to recall and retrieve, on demand, information that has been previously learned.	 Not Required Low Demand – Minimal need to remember and recall information that is applied to work tasks and/or there are clear processes/instructions available to carry out work tasks. Moderate Demand – Recall information that is harder to remember because it is not often used or there are time constraints within which to recall the information. High Demand – Recall many different pieces of detailed information and/or sequences which may have to be recalled in demanding situations (e.g. tight timeline pressures or being out of control). 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily
Attention to Detail The ability to perform work tasks that require significant attention or understanding.	 Not Required Low Demand – Minimal attention or concentration is required and this is not at an intense level. Errors made would not create serious difficulty. Moderate Demand – Significant attention or concentration is required for many tasks. Errors made would not impact safety of others. High Demand – Intense level of attention or concentration is required. Errors made would have detrimental consequences (e.g. safety of others). 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily
Completing multiple tasks The ability to perform and/or monitor more than one task or function at a time, and identify when tasks or functions require attention.	 Not Required Low Demand – Completion of one task at a time with few interruptions until completion or until further direction from a supervisor. Moderate Demand – Completion of multiple tasks at a time with need to exercise some time management and judgement to determine priorities. High Demand – Completion of multiple, concurrent tasks with need to exercise a high degree of time management and judgement to determine when to attend to each task. 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily

Mental Endurance The ability to effectively perform work tasks for a long period of time with little opportunity for breaks due to the nature of the work being performed. This also includes the ability to work regular, rotating, overnight or on-call shifts.	 Not Required Low Demand – Ability to take regular breaks throughout the work day and most often work shift ends at consistent time. Moderate Demand – May need to move breaks around working extended periods of time without stopping and/or often need to work over time. High Demand – Not able to take breaks at regular intervals, working non-stop for extended periods of time and/or performing overnight or on-call shifts. 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily
Problem solving/ Decision making The ability to work effectively when analyzing problems, organizing information, resolving issues or generating solutions.	 Not Required Low Demand – Minimal degree of judgement where any lapses would not create serious difficulty. Moderate Demand – Some level of judgement is required but does not assume the safety of others. High Demand – Significant level of judgement required and/or is responsible for safety of others. 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily
Self-supervision The ability to work effectively without supervision, including working remotely or when a supervisor is not available.	 Not Required Low Demand – Minimal self-supervision required and supervisor often provides work direction. Moderate Demand – Self-supervision is required with occasional direction from supervisor. High Demand – Pre-dominantly self-supervised with ability to contact supervisor if needed. 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily
Supervision of others The ability to work effectively in the role of supervisor, respecting organizational values and policies while meeting objectives.	 Not Required Low Demand – May be required to provide work direction to others with no other supervisory duties. Moderate Demand – Provides work direction and manages some elements of work performance of others. High Demand – Full supervisory responsibility of other employees. 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily
Time Pressures The ability to complete tasks within a given time period, work quickly when required, and/or manage time effectively so that all tasks are completed on time and at an acceptable level of quality.	 Not Required Low Demand – Majority of work is self-paced with minimal time constraints. Moderate Demand – Pressure to meet deadlines or work within time constraints and/or the volume of work is high and work pace is moderately fast. High Demand – Most work is performed under rigid time constraints and the volume of work is high (fast work pace or worker must extend the work day to manage work volumes). 	 Not Required Rare Occasional Frequent Constant Not Daily

Is the date of accident position considered *safety-sensitive and/or *risk sensitive and/or *decision critical?

□ *Safety sensitive – a lapse in memory, attention/concentration, or problem solving that may impact safety of oneself and/or safety of others i.e., a performance error results in a high likelihood of direct harm. Occupations may include nurse, correctional officer, pilot, professional driver, etc.

□ *Risk sensitive – a position or class of positions identified by the employer normally remote from a work site but that has authority to direct safety-sensitive employees or make potentially high-consequence decisions within a hazardous work site. They include supervisors, technical experts, etc. who reside off-site but make safety-critical decisions and direct on-site employees conducting potentially dangerous tasks in potentially dangerous work environments. Performance limitations (e.g. due to substance use) could result in an incident or near miss as described above.

□ *Decision critical – a lapse in memory, attention, concentration may impact effective performance, productivity, financial/legal reputation, and liability of the workplace organization. This may include but is not limited to risks to property damage, digital information loss, proprietary breaches, legal liability, delayed completion of time sensitive job tasks or economic loss. Occupations may include corporate executives, supervisors/managers, lawyers, schoolteachers, information technology workers.

□ Driving

□ Working with and around equipment (Example: fork lift, bulldozer, crane, tractor, etc.)

- □ Tool usage affecting safety of self and/or others (Example: knife, grinders, torch, etc.)
- □ Working with animals
- □ Climbing or working at heights
- □ Providing direct care to persons
- □ Tasks including decision making which would affect another individual
- □ Tasks in which errors made would have negative consequences including privacy of information/confidentiality, legal and/ or financial implications
- □ Other (Specify):
